

Superintendent's Report – School Board
Timothy Steinhauer, Ed.D.
April 18, 2017

Model UN Team Recognition

The Mt. Lebanon High School's Model UN team finished the season with an outstanding performance at Ohio State University's Model UN Tournament on April 2nd. The team won the "Outstanding Delegation" team award and nine students won individual awards.

Seniors Ajay Wadhwani and Alex Thorpe, junior Max King and freshman Antonio Carapella won 1st Place in their individual committees. Seniors Isaac Kalapos, Eion Wilson-Manion and Jacob Dale claimed 2nd Place in their committees, and seniors Neil Mingh and Ben Ohrman were recognized as 3rd Place in committee.

The Mt. Lebanon Model UN team's victory capped off a great year of competition that featured victories at tournaments held at Penn State University, the University of Pittsburgh, the University of Delaware and now Ohio State. Simulations were held covering current and historical topics that included the Suez Canal Crisis of 1956, the US Civil War and the Iranian Crisis of 1953.

The team's coaches are Adam Lumish, Peter DiNardo and George Savarese. They are extremely proud of their students for all of their diligence and determination as well as their passion for excellence. Congratulations to all on another successful season. We have representatives of the team with us tonight so please come forward when I call your name to receive a certificate of achievement:

Ben Akhtar

Grace Brown

Antonio Carapella

Jake Dale

Elizabeth DePastino

Ezra Gershanok
Max Huber
Isaac Kalapos
Max King
Neil Ming
Aya Obeid
Ben Ohrman
Alex Thorpe
Ajay Wadhwani
Eoin Wilson-Manion
Pete DiNardo

NAMM Announcement

The Mt. Lebanon School District was recently honored with the 2017 Best Communities for Music Education designation from The NAMM Foundation for its outstanding commitment to music education. This is the ninth consecutive year the District has been recognized for our K-12 music education program as one of the best in the nation.

We are very proud of the long history the Mt. Lebanon School District has in supporting the fine and performing arts in our schools. Our music education program is exceptional and is an important element in a well-rounded Mt. Lebanon education. The Best Communities for Music Education designation is a result of the dedication and hard work of our music teachers and administrators and recognizes their contributions to one of the finest music education programs in the country.

The Best Communities Music Education designation is awarded to districts that demonstrate outstanding achievement in providing music access and education to all students. The awards program recognizes exceptional efforts by teachers, administrators, parents, students and community leaders who support music education as an important part of the school curriculum. Representing our music teachers from elementary and secondary are:

Carol Froelich

Doug Reichenfeld

Ethan LaPlaca

Jennifer Rodriquez

Pajama Game

Mt. Lebanon High School will present their spring musical The Pajama Game on May 3-6 at 7:30 PM in the High School Auditorium. Great songs, plenty of dancing, and as always, an extraordinary “Mt. Lebanon” set will combine to make this a must-see Mt. Lebanon musical. I invite everyone to attend and enjoy our very talented student performers. Tickets are $12 for adults, $8 for students and Gold Card holders are free. Tickets are available online at www.mtisd.org/tickets and will be sold at the Box Office in the Auditorium Lobby the last week in April. Check the website for times.